

Official Monroe Corporation Chair Order 00001: Reorganization of Emerald Systems

Section One

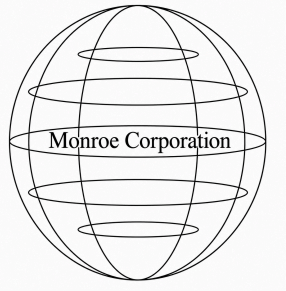

The Acting Administrative Director of Emerald Systems is hereby ordered by the chair of the Monroe Corporation to institute the following:

1. Emerald Systems will undergo a reorganization, including positions, duties and responsibilities, these changes will be outlined in Section Two
2. Emerald Systems will become an independent division of the Monroe Corporation, separate from Monroe Entertainment Services, although still under the same parent company
3. Each employee will undergo mandatory training, including but not limited to, Customer Interactions, Systems and all training necessary to perform outlined duties, these standards will be defined in Section Three
4. Each employee will be required to undertake a mandatory M.C.S.O. clearance test, they will be given clearance to certain operations and systems based on test scores and roles, failure to secure clearance needed to perform your duties will result in immediate termination
5. Each employee will be required to maintain at least an average of %85 on the Monroe Corporation Employee aptitude test and will be tested every two months
6. If, however the circumstances, Emerald Systems fails to implement the above, it will result in immediate dissolution of Emerald Systems with no exception

Section Two

The following organization changes are to be made as outlined in Section 1-1:

1. The position of Administrative Director is to be given to Seth Fleuter
2. The position of Director of Operations is to be given to Aydan Daughtry
3. The position of Director of Development is to be given to Bodhi Domonell
4. The position of Human Resources Director is to be given to Natalie Marvin
5. The position of Internal Affairs Director is to be given to David Pemberton
6. The position of Director of Public Relations and Marketing is to be given to Felix Dorrah
7. The position of Director of Moderation is to be given to Mathias Reyes
8. The position of Director of Quality Assurance is to be given to Elliot Huebsch
9. The position of Director of Community Outreach is to be given to Wallace O'Keefe
10. The position of Director of Community Outreach is to be given to Wallace O'Keefe

Section Three

Employee training standards are defined as stated in 1-3 is as follows:

1. Each department director has the authority to set training standards for his/her subordinates, as long as they,
 - a. Provide adequate training and experience
 - b. Cover all necessary features of each position
2. The Administrative Director and the Director of Operations has the authority to set division or department wide training standards or for specific personal or positions
3. Each employee must take aptitude tests for their department, these will be made by the Administrative Director and Director of Operations

Conclusion:

This document is valid on the authority of the Chair of the Monroe Corporation and is to go into effect on the Ninth Day of September, 2026, C.E.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Wyatt Monroe".

2026-07-03

Wyatt Monroe,
Chair, Monroe Corporation